TAIWANESE TEA HOUSE

THE PEER REVIEW

FALL QUARTER 2019

SPILLING THE TEA

Ding Tea is a boba shop that recently opened up in La Jolla serving delicious drinks with unique flavors and toppings! Some of the drinks the peers tried out included Oolong Milk Tea, Strawberry Milk Tea, Matcha Milk Tea, and Mango Yakult/Yogurt drink. We all enjoyed the different flavors and although some of us weren't the biggest fan of the boba pearls make sure to give it a try as a fun addition to the drink!

There are tables inside so Ding Tea is also a great location to study at if you prefer a noisier environment or want to catch up with friends! Be warned it does get crowded sometimes so make sure to be on the lookout to snatch a seat!
