Best for: brunch

Cocotte Bistro is nestled in a UTC plaza, specializing in coffees and some excellent brunch choices. We love the Blueberry & Mascarpone French Toast and classic Waffles, each served with whipped cream and syrup, and will satisfy those Sunday morning cravings. Feeling more savory? Try the scrambled egg and melted Swiss filled Crepe Meli-Melo, or even the Salmon Benedict, which—you guessed it—comes with smoked salmon, avocado, poached eggs, and Hollandaise sauce. Pair that with a Mexican Mocha a la Cheryl Demeyer, or a Iced Vanilla Latte, a Michelle Shin favorite, and you're set. Not a coffee fan? First off, how??? And secondly, Brody Patterson recommends the Hot Chocolate instead.

If you've slept in a bit too much, and you're hitting Cocotte for lunch, may we suggest the San Diegan Panini to show the world how much you love SD and therefore, UCSD, or even the Lyon Panini, to show the world how much you love Professor Lyon? See? Everything ties back.

If dinner is all you wake up for, we question about what you were up to last night, but we definitely suggest the Tomato Basil Soup, which comes with French bread. And to go to sleep earlier. Warning: dinner is definitely atmospheric, so this is the Peer Advisors saving you from either an awkward not-date, or helping you make that move. If date night and a Professor Lyon panini doesn't convince you to hit Cocotte, I don't know what will.
