VI. Items of Immediate Consideration

VII. Reports

A. Finance Committee [Stephanie Sayegh]

• Quarterly Allocations

- ❖ Company 157: They have a budget for purchasing wireless headsets for production; there are 80 people in the production, 20 of which are Revelle students, and most attendance for their shows are Revelle students
 - a. Rachna wants to make them rent the headsets
 - b. Jessica suggests $75 for props and set costs
 - c. Money will go to headsets only
 - d. Kristin moves to approve $75 from Internal, Rachna seconds; 9-2-1, passes
- ❖ Welcome Week Committee: budget needs to be sent to Stephanie; they will be returning next week; requesting money for hypnotist performer, candy bar, cotton candy; Allison: For the RCC introduction events, before the hypnotist show, there is a concern of having too many sweets with the pizookies before candy bar; recommendations from Welcome Week Committee are carne asada fries, nachos, anything savory other than pizza since it is common in events of other organizations
- ❖ RCO: 1st event is the first meeting, and to bring in new students to help with volunteering events, requesting Domino's Pizza for first event to bring people in; 2nd event is Halloween candy grams, requesting for stickers, cards, arts and crafts, cardstock, markers, candy bags, snack for the volunteers making candy grams, sugar cookies, chocolate milk, Welch's fruit snacks for those who can not have candy; 3rd event is "Can It" during Thanksgiving, which is a competition between suites in Revelle for cans for Foodbank in San Diego, with Secret Cookie Service party as the prize; 4th event is "Beary Happy Holiday," where they get 50 stuffed animals with attached notes to give to the senior citizen community in La Jolla
 - a. Rachna suggests getting discounts or donations from Secret Cookie Service, since it is a student organization
 - b. Kristin asks about the Halloween grams: which school are they targeting? Because of concern of giving out candy to public school, maybe boys and girls club
 - c. Rachna suggests waiting until hearing back from the Secret Cookie Service for discount/donation for a new budget
 - d. Stephanie suggests funding, but having leftover money go back to RCC, Kristin seconds
- ❖ RPB: 1st event is "Get the Scoop," requesting for ice cream; 1st meeting is requesting for Domino's Pizza; 2nd event is Fluffer Nutter Sandwich social event, requesting for peanut butter and marshmallow cream; they will have posters to advertise; 3rd event is Halloween pumpkin carving competition, requesting for table cloths, gift cards, dirt cake, photo booth, fog machine (permanent item, since current one is broken); 4th event is Thanksgiving event with “Thank You,” requesting for cards, pens, stamps, envelope, cookies and hot chocolate

- a. Dean Sherry says that she doesn't see pumpkins in the budget for Halloween event
 - b. Kristin suggests for that for the pumpkin, submit budget for pumpkin later in the year closer to the event with amount of people; she also suggests them to target more than 65 attendees, instead target 100-150 people; for 1st meeting, requesting for candy
