- ❖ Pes:
 - We will be meeting tomorrow at 4pm on zoom
- ❖ Revelle Voting Booth was fairly successful with many students voting at the booth so they could get a cupcake
- ❖ Had a meeting with RCC advisors and discussed how we can make programming easier moving forward. One solution that was proposed is emphasizing in the bylaws what a program is. At the moment most RCC members fulfill their programming requirement through events, but moving forward I would like to emphasize that there are other ways of fulfilling this requirement such as creating informational bulletin board for RAs, videos series spotlighting revelle students (shoutout Rafa and Topher), doing more advocacy work in the form of surveys (shoutout Maddie) and open forums. The goal is to both make programming easier and also transition RCC to be a governing body and advocacy group instead of being a programming board. If you are only interested in programming I recommend joining SIP. This solution will be developed within the rules committee and will be implemented before Week 5. The second part of this plan is to specify duties for Revelle voting members to include outreach and advocacy work. This will also be developed in rules committee.
- ❖ On Monday I will be beginning to work on creating and organizing RCC historical documents within the binders we have. These binders will include past minutes and past event programming documents. If there is anything else you would like added to the binders please let me know.
- ❖ Thank you to Dean Sherry, Wesley, Chris and Caren for attending the All College Panel, it was nice to see some friendly faces in the crowd.

 - ❖ Non-voting 1-on-1s
 - Will be scheduled for weeks 3-4. Calendly will be sent on Discord!
- F. Associated Students Revelle College Senators [Gage Mowrey, Nicholas Tappin]
 - ❖ Senator Notes:
 - Senate Rating:
 - Gage: 8/10, weird set-up in Price East Ballroom because of a potential protest that never ended up showing
 - Nic: 8.5/10, a lot of open space so the meeting felt weird but the meeting was effective and moved quickly
 - Elections update from Election Manager Mowrey (insert hat switch):
 - Just as a fun little TL:DR of the Election Committee backend, we have had so many grievance submitted today against two particular AS-wide slates for improper campaign protocols, which is causing us to hold an emergency grievance hearing, so if you have not voted, I encourage you to look to see if a slate has warning symbols next to their affiliation stating they've broken campaign rules
 - On a more positive note, I am proud to say we have not had a single Revelle issue for our elections!! Good job candidates!

TO IMMIGRATION OR OTHER OFFICER:

“I am exercising my 5th Amendment right under the U.S. Constitution to remain silent. I do not wish to speak with you, answer your questions, or sign or give you any documents without a lawyer present.

I do not give you permission to enter my home or search my person or belongings based on my 4th Amendment rights under the U.S. Constitution, unless you have a warrant to enter, signed by a judge or magistrate with my name and correct address on it that you slide under the door.”

Your rights if you are taken into immigration custody

- You have the right to a lawyer, but the government does not have to provide one for you. If you do not have a lawyer, see resources listed on this guide or ask for a list of free or low-cost legal services.
- You have the right to contact your consulate or have an officer inform the consulate of your arrest.
- You can tell the ICE agent you wish to remain silent and discuss your immigration status only with your lawyer.
- You do not have to sign anything without talking to a lawyer. If you sign, you may be giving up your opportunity to try to stay in the U.S.
- Remember your immigration or USCIS number (“A” number), case number, or any other identifying number assigned to you by immigration enforcement and give this information to your family and lawyer. It will help family members and the lawyer locate you.

Your rights if immigration comes to your home (including an apartment or dorm room)

- You do not have to open your door unless an officer has certain kinds of warrants: Ask the officer to slip the warrant under the door or hold it up to the window so you can inspect it. A search warrant allows police to enter the address listed on the warrant, but officers can only search the areas and for the items listed. An arrest warrant allows police to enter the home of the person listed on the warrant if they believe the person is inside. A warrant of removal/deportation (ICE warrant) does not authorize officers to enter a home without consent. You do not have to provide consent if you do not want them to enter.
- You have the right to remain silent, even if an officer has a warrant that authorizes their entry.
- You do not have to sign anything. If you sign, you may be giving up your opportunity to stay in the U.S.

Your rights if you are questioned about your immigration status by immigration enforcement

- You have the right to remain silent and do not have to discuss your immigration or citizenship status. You do not have to answer questions about where you were born, whether you are a U.S. citizen, or how or when you entered the country. (Separate rules apply at international borders and airports).
- Stay calm and be polite. Do not lie about your citizenship status or provide fake documents.
- You do not have to sign anything. If you sign, you may be giving up your opportunity to stay in the U.S.
- Do remember the details of the encounter. If you feel your rights have been violated, write down everything you can remember including officers' badge and patrol car numbers, which agency the officers were from, and any other details.

For international students and scholars holding in-status visas: You are required by law to carry “registration” documents at all times. If an immigration agent requests your immigration papers you should present them if you have them with you. You have the right to contact your consulate. If your visa is out of status consult with an immigration attorney.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS!

If you are stopped by an immigration enforcement officer:

- If you choose to remain silent, tear off this portion of the card and hand it to the officer. (See other side.)
- The card explains that you are exercising your right to refuse to answer any questions until you have talked with a lawyer.

- ❖ Working on putting the card above on every ISEO newsletter.

 - (530) 752-7996
 - ❖ It is recommended to have the number of a legal resource/attorney as well as the number of a family member memorized, in the event of an emergency.
 - ❖ *Legal services for those subject to ICE arrest, detention, or removal, not for active student visas.
 - ❖ If being detained by the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE):
 - Immigration officers can require nonimmigrants to provide evidence related to their immigration status. Students/scholars with in-status visas are required to carry “registration” documents at all times and should present them to an immigration agent if requested. However, you have the right to remain silent if your answer to a question could be used against you in a criminal case.
 - You have the right to a lawyer, but the government does not have to provide one for you. If you do not have a lawyer, ask for a list of free or low-cost legal services.
 - You have the right to contact your consulate or have an officer inform the consulate of your detention.
 - Do not sign anything, such as a voluntary departure or stipulated removal, without talking to a lawyer. If you sign the document, you may be giving up your opportunity to try to stay in the U.S.
 - Keep a copy of your immigration documents with someone you trust.
 - ❖ On a less serious note, come try Indonesian meals served at 64’s Wok!
